“ Yvette and family: I am so sorry for your loss. I hope that you can find solace and peace in the fact that you were a good daughter to her and that pleasant memories will help to soothe a hard day. I think you introduced me to her one time and I was with my mother also at that time. I heard you speak of her and know how much you loved her. My regards! I am keeping you on my mind, in my heart, and in my prayers. Bless you at this difficult time.

“Granny was the best grandmother anyone could ever ask for. Many, many precious memories survive her...pushing the furniture back & dancing, playing basketball, & who could forget that famous back bend on Christmas Eve?! She was the original outdoors woman... when I was younger I can remember her grabbing her .22 & loading up her dog to go squirrel hunting- all by herself! She had so much love to give & was always so proud of her family. We miss you already, Granny, but know you're in heaven holding your precious little angel, Michael, right now. Love you!!
