“Mary, you and your family have been in our thoughts and prayers these days since we learned of Nick's passing. We are so very grateful that you and Nick took the time to visit us in our home during your trip to Colorado last year! May your loving memories sustain you in the coming days and we pray that you feel the arms of our dear Savior around you.

Love, Nancy and Bob

“ Nick was one of those "quiet Christians"; he didn't have to say he was a Christian because his very life and the way he loved and served others was his testimony to his Savior. He was a great inspiration and friend to our family, especially our daughter, Aleah. We are greatly saddened at his passing, and we send our love and blessings for comfort to Mary Jo and his children and grandchildren in this time of grief. John and Helen Begarly
