“ To the families of the Holletts,
I joined the Nazarene church in Newport Rhode Island back in the seventies, and there met your mom & dad . The many bible studies at their home while I grew in Christ. I was so happy to find Pat on Facebook last night and was so happy and hoping to reunite with her and Pastor Hollet, only to find out tonight that they have both gone on to be with our Lord and Saviour. I wanted to tell them how very much they meant to me and all that I have learned from their teachings and friendship. They were wonderful ! One day, because I knew them and found the Lord, I will see them again in the glory land.

My sincere sympathy for your loss,

Sheila Daniels

“ To the Family and Friends of Patricia Jean Hollett,

Losing a loved one overwhelms us with grief. However, please know that Jesus feels your pain and will soon under God's direction do something to eliminate it. This is proven in John 11: 11-14, 39, 43, and 44 where he wept when his dear friend Lazarus died while he was on earth. Yet minutes later he raised Lazarus back to life. Thus revealing how he feels about our pain as well as the power he holds over death and what he'll do in the near future for those who have died. What he did in Lazarus' case along with the other two resurrections he performed while on earth strengthen our faith in the resurrection promise made in Acts 24: 15. Having been appointed King, by Jehovah God, Daniel 7: 13 and 14 explains that Jesus will soon rule the entire earth from God's Heavenly Kingdom or Government. When that happens, the following Scriptures also state that he'll eliminate all the problems we face today such as SICKNESS, OLD AGE, WAR, VIOLENCE, PAIN, and DEATH etc... Yes EVEN our DEAD LOVED ONES will be RESURRECTED and be given the opportunity to live forever. Isaiah 33:24); (Job 33:25); (Psalms 46: 9 and 10); (Isaiah 2: 4); (Psalms 37: 9-11 and 29); (Revelation 21: 3 and 4); (John 5: 28 and 29). Imagine how wonderful it will be to reunite with our loved ones who have died with the possibility to enjoy a perfect and problem free life together right here on earth when it's cleanse from wickedness Although from a human standpoint, some may find it hard to trust in these promises, it is not mere dream. Every one of the promises God has made that has not yet come true will be fulfilled because Jehovah, the ONLY TRUE GOD has promised and He cannot lie. (Titus 1: 2). The question remains: Do we want to be counted among those who will be awarded the opportunity to benefit from those promises? If so we must heed Jesus' counsel found at John 17:3 where he said that gaining accurate knowledge of God and of him can lead to ETERNAL LIFE. In other words if we take time to study the Scriptures so that we can really come to know Jehovah God and his son Jesus in order to live a life that is pleasing to them, they will grant us ETERNAL LIFE. If this is something that appeals to you, please contact the local Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses for a FREE home BIBLE STUDY, which can be conducted at your convenience.

As you await the fulfillment of the resurrection, may you find comfort in the cited Scriptures, which give us hope for a wonderful future in God's upcoming new and righteous world! (Matthew 19: 28-30); (2 Peter 3:13)

“ *Cindy, Joe, & family,
God bless each one of you. May God's hand of safety be with each of you as you travel the next few days. You mother was so precious. I told her that there is a special place in heaven for minister's wives. As she held on to God's love, His presence and the Word, God gave her strength. She was an inspiration. She has received her reward from her Creator and I know she has heard the words "Well done, Thou good and faithful servant." Our prayers are with each of you and may the Holy Spirit comfort and keep each of you. Chaplain Perry Muse*
