

Paul "Booker" Gardner Booker

September 15, 1941 - May 17, 2021

Paul Gardner Booker was born September 15, 1941 in Wrigley, Tennessee, and passed from this life Monday May 17, 2021, at the age of 79, in Bradenton, Florida. A native of Wrigley, Tennessee, Paul retired after 38 years at Ford Glass Plant in Nashville, TN. Paul and his wife Joyce relocated to Bradenton, Florida seventeen years ago where he spent his retirement days playing golf and helping out at The Preserve at Tara, working alongside the sport he loved.

He was the son of the late Lois Hopama "Hope" (Bell) Booker and the late Paul Ray Booker

He is survived by his loving wife of 55 years, Joyce (Hudspeth) Booker, of Bradenton, Florida. Sons Bradley Paul Booker of Norfolk, Arkansas, Jason Scott Booker (Tarry) of Jasper Indiana, daughter, Christie Booker Harrington (Bill) of Centerville, Tennessee. He was an exceptionally proud grandfather to eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Paul's hard work, unconditional love and devotion for his family, and love of life will remain forever in the hearts of his family and friends. He was deeply loved by his family and will be greatly missed by all.

“Joyce and family, so sorry to hear of Paul's passing, and to have missed the memorial service. Years ago, we discussed the heritage of his and my father's relationship, whose paternal grandparents were Alexander and Mary Booker Weems. Her parents were Amanda Davidson and James Booker. Regrettably, my dad died over 30 years ago but I still try to work on the genealogy. (To meet again at our next class reunion would be a joy.)

May Paul rest in peace and may his wonderful memories always be a blessing!
