“ I well remember visiting at our aunt and uncle’s house when Paul would show up in his State Trooper car. Being kids it was always a mixture of “Why are the cops her?” and the. realizing he was a cousin of our dad who was simply dropping by to see us and thinking it was so cool having a Trooper for a relative. He was a dedicated law man and influenced other family members to become law enforcement as well. His passing is a great loss to the good people in middle Tennessee.
