“ I am heartbroken by the loss of one of the very closest friends I have had during my lifetime. Peggye & I were best friends all through High School. I spent almost as much time at the Loveless Family home as I did my own. And Peggye and I have remained close for the 50+years since we graduated. She & CR had one of the Best relationships I have ever witnessed in a couple, during my lifetime. I can truly say that I cannot remember a time when Peggye lost her cool and became angry; but most of my friends cannot say that about me. Peggye and I were a great match as friends, In my opinion; We always had each other's back and were always supportive of each other no matter the situation. I have missed talking w/ Peggye since she became so ill and am very saddened that I did not get to visit her in the last year or so. I am having some health issues also and was not able to attend her Service, which was also a great sadness for me. I do wish to convey to CR., Faye, Polly, John & Jenny as well as the in-laws and Grand and GGrandchildren whom I do not know my Sincerest Sympathy. I have been praying for Peggye regularly for some time now and will continue prayers for the family through this very difficult time. If there is anything that I might do for any of you, please contact me. I loved (and still love) Peggye as if she were a sister. I am going to miss her dearly; but know that she is at last without pain; and I have no doubt that she now sits on the Right hand of God, awaiting the reunion with those of us who continue the journey faithfully, as she did, to Join Her. I say to my beloved friend: 'Go Rest High on that mountain, Peg.' I love you dearly, Anne

“ C. R., Jenny, and John, we are so sorry to hear about the loss of Mrs. Peggye. She was a truly wonderful person, and we know your hearts are breaking. Take comfort that she no longer suffers, and she is at peace. We know what you are going through, because we lost our mom on August 7 last year. It doesn't get easier, and we think of her everyday. Cherish the good times that you had, those memories will be there forever. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Randy and Renee Churchwell Lisa and Andy Pogue
