“ Percy was a lifetime friend to the Rogers family in Centerville. When I moved to Green Hills in Nashville at age 25 to be near my job, I was looking for a moving company to get it all settled. Dad related this to Percy, who said 'she does not need a moving truck. I will bring my flatbed and lend a hand!' He showed up early morning with a big smile and was wonderful. What a great man....kind and loving to all...definitely a Christian role model for all time.*
