

Perry M. Huddleston

November 10, 1953 - April 10, 2026

Perry Huddleston was a man deeply loved by his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. He will be remembered for his kind heart, his strength, and the love he gave so freely throughout his life.

Perry was a devoted husband, a proud father, and a loving grandfather and great-grandfather. He shared a life filled with love and memories with his wife, Laura Huddleston, who loved him deeply and will miss him dearly.

He is survived by his son, Eric Covington, and Eric's wife, Shannon Covington; Eric's children, Ari Covington and Erin Covington; his daughter, Crystal Jones; Crystal's children, Matiece Jones, Tanarra Jones-Adams, Ronald Nichols, Ta'Ron Nichols, and Ron'Quece Curtis; his sister, Dianna Huddleston-Stone; his niece, Anita Stone-Wright, and her husband, David K. Wright; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; and nieces, nephews, and aunts.

Perry was truly a character. He loved life, never met a stranger, and everyone who met him loved him. He had a wonderful sense of humor, a deep love for God, and a way of making people feel welcome wherever he went.

Perry leaves behind a legacy of love, family, faith, and devotion that will continue through the many lives he has touched. He will be greatly missed, forever remembered, and always loved.

"Those we love do not go away; they walk beside us every day."

“ I did not want to believe that you are no longer here on this earthly side, now you are safe in the presence of God! I will never forget you, you have been there for so many, the love that you had for my daughters, you getting them their first bicycles and allowing them to come to your house and be kids. They love you and will never forget you. I can hear you saying to people, this is my step-daughter, I would just look at you and smile. As I am typing this with tear filled eyes, I am going to make peace with you not being here and that you no longer have to suffer, no more suffering. May you rest in peace. Love you Perry!

“ Eric,
Praying that your family find strength and peace knowing that Perry is in the arms of God. I will not forget his smile and the conversations we had every time I saw him. May god continue to bless and keep you. I'm here if you need anything, love you.
