

Phyllis Ann Radde

August 23, 1933 - September 30, 2025

After a life well lived and deeply cherished, Phyllis Ann Radde of Centerville passed away on September 30, 2025, at the age of 92. Phyllis was born in Elgin, Illinois on August 23, 1933, to the late Roy Naylor and Marion Frey.

In addition to her parents Phyllis is preceded in death by her husband Floyd Fredrick Radde and siblings, Jim Naylor, Phil Naylor and Bonnie Bagley.

Phyllis had a heart that loved deeply and was the one who could make you laugh when you needed it most. Her wit, playful humor, and the twinkle in her eye could turn any moment into a memory. More than anything Phyllis loved her family. Every holiday, every birthday, every simple day around the table meant the world to her. She showed her children and grandchildren what unconditional love looks like, and her family will forever carry that gift.

Phyllis is lovingly remembered by her children Sandy (Larry) Scott of Centerville, Tennessee, Bryan Radde of Illinois; sister Joyce Sanders of Tennessee; five grandchildren and a host of greatgrandchildren.

McDonald Funeral Home in Centerville, Tennessee is honored to be serving the Radde Family during this difficult time.
