

Plummer Vaughan,

May 11, 1922 - December 9, 2009

Mr. Vaughan passed away on Wednesday at his home in Hohenwald. He was borned in Stewart Co., TN to the late Plummer Harrison Vaughan, Sr. and Effie Laura Stimpson Vaughan. He was owner of V&W Ready Mix Concrete and was a World War II Army Veteran. Survivors include his wife, Martha Elizabeth (Ellis) Vaughan; son, Johnny R. Vaughan; daughters, Gypsy Jo Schwendimann (Gary) and Scarlette Woodall all of Hohenwald; sister, Nell Moore of Hopkinsville, KY; grandchildren, Elizabeth Marie Vaughan of Hohenwald, Heidid Cothran (Russell) of Columbia, Kathryn "Cassi" Lark Parsons (Eric) of Nashville, Poppy Bass (Perry) of Bremen, GA, Jade Woodall of Nashville, Noah Vaughan Woodall of Hohenwald; great grandchildren, Paisley Burklow of Carrollton, GA and Harrison Cothran of Columbia, TN.

Tribute Wall

RD

“ I am a friend of Jade's and although I never met Mr. Plummer, I have often heard Jade speak of him with reverence and love. My prayers are with the family and especially Jade as she has touched the hearts of so many of us.

Robert Murray Dec - December 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CD

“ To the whole family, I am so sorry of Plummer's passing. May God comfort you in your time or grief and sorrow.

Chip Spears Dec - December 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM