“ So very hurt, to hear about my friend Red, he was like a father figure in my life and I always looked up to him, he loved sharing stories about my daddy, and said he used to save me from the play pen when I was little, my husband Phil and I went visited with him not to long ago, and talked cars and Red showed us a project he was working on, I will cherish our time with him, gone but never forgotten, Love you Red and you are pain free now!! 💕
