“ Like many of us, I have so many memories of my Papa. The one that stands out the most right now is sitting in his big green recliner with him and he's tickling Chloé and I to death while holding us upside down over the edge of the chair so Woody would lick all over our faces. That always made us laugh so hard we almost peed. I often think of going to camp with him and Nene. I think of watching NASCAR with him and Uncle Lloyd, never knowing what was going on in the race. I miss him singing "My Girl" To me. I miss him FaceTiming me while I'm here at college and him asking me how everything is going. I miss your protection of Chloé and I over boys. I miss his voice and his laugh. I miss his dirty jokes. I miss waiting with Nene for him to get home from work. I miss him seeing me and calling me sugar biscuit or sugar plum. These are few of so many of the memories that keep flashing through my mind. I will always love you Papa and I can never thank you enough for being such a good Papa to Chloé and I. I will always admire you and your bravery and strength. I love you so much, always ❤️

“ I have so many fond memories of my Dad, he is my favorite person...I will miss his phone calls and him saying “what are you doing daughter”. I always wanted to make him proud, I hope I did and continue to. As a child, I would sit in his lap and he would share an orange with me...it might not sound like much, but it has always been special to me. He will be so dearly missed, I will hold onto the moments and words that made him so special to me. I am lucky he was my dad, my best friend and the best Papa to my girls ❤️

It's been a few days since my father has passed and thoe I was their and witnessed this I still sit here in disbelief.my father was a great man and a man of many talents I really don't think their was anything he was afraid to take on.i know he took on my mother with four children at a very young age and that alone is a life accomplishment and made three more.now people you no as well as I do ok we will say no more.my father was a hard working man his whole life and tought me many of the trades and things that I would become in my life that have gave me the knowledge to make it threw life much more easier than most.i worked along side my father for a many of years back in the good ole days sometimes struggling in my mind to keep up with him but we seamed to always cross the finish line.my father always seam to provide for us no matter what the situation he always came threw.This kind of man is a very rare duck these days their arnt many like him.He was cheated from his life early for some reason only God will know but I know that where ever he may be I bet he is still off fixing something or figuring something out somewhere somehow because theirs no way god took that much knowledge from us because he wernt going to use it.i love you dad and I will forever miss you till we meet again I'll do my best to hold things togeather till we all meet again intill then get used to them new wings and fly around with them bad boys for awhile and get good cause ya no we going to be racing.love and miss you always.
