“Larry always had a smile on his face, despite the sad losses in his life, and he always asked about my brother, Sam. Larry and Mary Jane were so close and had a happy marriage. He had a pure, kind heart, was thoughtful of others and willingly shared his deep faith in Douglas's unusual Sunday School class where he was a loyal member. Larry was multitalented with woodworking, music and gardening. He will be mightily missed by his family and friends and we will be praying for strength through this remarkably difficult time.”

“Larry was so kind with an "Old Soul", a deep thinker, with so much compassion. What an honor it was to have known him.
