There was no place else to soccer ball sign in at the funeral home, fantastic response. It helped some of us learn more about Robert, that he really enjoyed when he played, and his joy and support of the kids and the game in Centerville. I know it must have been a rough night for all of you. Praying for you!

my fb post copied below. Missing Robert.....

Thinking and praying for you and the boys. Robert was an encourager. Kind, considerate and always willing to step up. I always appreciated getting to spend time talking with him before and after church services. His smile was genuine, his laugh was real. You could hear his heart for the Lord in his prayers, and comments in class. I always felt like I had a friend and a Christian brother. I was so inspired by him after those severe ladder/fall injuries. He overcame so much to get back to his family life, work and raising those smart, sharp, talented boys. Super Impressive. Your family means so much to all of us, and I've told you often how much I enjoy your fb posts, and getting to see how much good fun living goes on at your house. You make us laugh and appreciate the simple joys of family life.

Whatever we can do, please don't be afraid to ask. May God continue to help you through. He will. We know Robert is in the SonShine today. We have all been blessed to have known him.

In His Love, Alan and Donna

I have known Robert for a long time. I always thought he was the cutest little boy. He grew into a fine man. There is no greater legacy than being a great Dad. I want to give my condolences to the family. In loving memory of Robert. Carol Nash

“ Robert was always involved with his boys and their sports. Robert was a family man too, always involved with the family at home and especially "at the beach", Michelle's favorite place. He will be missed by us all and his boys will do some early "growing up" with their Dad's passing. We can all say, "see you soon, Robert."
