

Roberta Jean Hornbeak

November 30, 1943 - August 25, 2025

Roberta Hornbeak, born November 30, 1943, in Indianapolis, Indiana, to the late Finnis Odell Russ and William Russ, lived a life defined by courage, love, and devotion to family. A graduate of Hampton High School in Dickson, TN, she was one of the Courageous Six who helped pave the way for school desegregation in Dickson County.

In high school she met and later married the love of her life, the late Jimmy Hornbeak Jr. Together they were proud members of the Rare Blood Motorcycle Club, riding side by side through life's journey. Roberta worked at Genesco and Levi's, later returning to school for accounting before retiring, while also sharing her talents at Dillard's, Central Parking, and East Food Market.

She is survived by her children, Marie Lee and Carmencita (Bobby) Tubbs; bonus son, Danny Wright; grandchildren, Mariquette (Robert) Boulton, Donzaleigh (Gerald) Hall, and Karayana Tubbs; six great-grandchildren; and many beloved extended family members. Roberta now rejoices in heaven with her husband, Jimmy, her sisters Nancy and Mattie Sue, and her brothers William and James.

Roberta will be remembered for her strength, her laughter, and her unwavering love for her family.

AW

My parents were great friends with Mrs. Roberta and Mr. Jimmy and they had some great times together. When I told Mama she had passed she said "one of my best buddies has gone on to be with the Lord" she will be missed. I am so glad I got a chance to spend a couple of hours with her just laughing and talking last time I saw her...REST in peace beautiful
