“ I was so very sad to hear of Roger's passing. He was a great man & ALWAYS had a smile on his face. I am sure he is seated at the feet of Jesus sharing stories with Alfred Williams now. God Bless his family.

“ He was so encouraging and such a funny guy! He will be so missed! He influenced so many kids in so many positive ways including our sons! It was such a privilege to share so many good memories watching our boys in basketball and golf. Thank you, Jesus, because of your love and sacrifice we will see that smiling face again...whole and healthy! God's peace and comfort to the whole family. We love you. The Leavers.

“ I remember my first teaching assignment was Social Studies. He told that if I had any questions com and see him. He let me copy his notes. I will never forget his kindness toward others. I always considered him as a friend and a fellow teaching professional. He was loved by many and respected by all. Words can't begin to describe the impact he has had on this community and its people. God bless him and his family.

A lifetime of doing good -- that's what I have witnessed in knowing this good man. I can't imagine the Centerville church of Christ without him, but I am confident that he is "safe in the arms of Jesus." May the God of all comfort be with his good family. -- Dan L. Buie.

My Dad (Paul Rogers) was buried on a Sunday. On the following Monday morning, I made a final loop up to the City Cemetery before heading home. I noticed that someone had driven their bicycle to visit the fresh grave. It was Roger's Dad, George Dotson. He had been faithful to Dad through all the 48 years and had now come to have an early morning chat with him. I'm confident he has driven his bicycle over to visit with Roger as they're both safe with the Lord now.

Susan, I just learned about Roger's death today. He died in the two week period when I was not getting the Centerville Church bulletin. My deepest sympathy to you and Matt and the rest of the family. I remember well being in your wedding there at the Centerville church a few years back. He was a very fine man! He is now enjoying the life we are all longing for.
