“ I loved playing on stage with Roger who made beautiful music come alive with his voice and strumming that guitar. Enjoyed playing with him many times at Puckett's over the years. He had a gentle soul and will be missed.

“ From church youth camp to the Wagon Wheel just a short time ago. You never met a stranger. Your sense of humor and your amazing talent will be missed All I can ever remember you talking about in your adulthood were your beautiful girls and music. We know sounds in heaven must be beautiful with you added to that choir. Until we see you again our friend "Flea". Forever in our hearts.
