

Ronald Charyl Hudson

September 16, 1953 - August 2, 2019

Ronnie Charyl Hudson was born September 16, 1955 in Lawrenceburg, TN to Freddie Lewis Hudson, Sr., and Mary Lou Hudson and was preceded in death by his parents. Ronnie lived a rich and full life traveling throughout the country and abroad as a "military brat." He graduated in 1972 from Bitburg American High School, Bitburg, Germany. After graduation, Ronnie attended Trade school in Paducah, KY where he mastered working with his hands across multiple vocational disciplines.

Ronnie enlisted in the Us Army in 1973 and served his country in the Army's legendary 101st Airborne Division, (Screaming Eagles) as his father before him until he was discharged in 1978. After proudly serving his country Ronnie settled in Hohenwald, TN after living for a short time in Atlanta, GA. Ronnie worked for many years with Dana Corporation as a machine operator and later retired from Dans. It was in Hohenwald that Ronnie met and married the late Ewaynia Shields. To this union were born two children, Chris and Cherelle.

Ronnie was also an accomplished musician; self-taught on the guitar, drums and piano. He played in several bands and produced a record when he was only 18 years old. Ronnie was our larger-than-life Rockstar.

Ronnie leaves behind to cherish his memory, two children, Chris and Cherelle

Hudson of Hohenwald, TN; 2 sisters, Freda Hudson of El Paso, TX and Rosalind Burrell (Reginald) of Huntsville, AL; and a brother, Freddie Hudson, Jr. of Woodbridge, VA. He also leaves six grandchildren, Aiden and Cainen Cagle, Shalen, Malachi, Kabreanna and Zachariah Hudson, and Uncle, Bruce T. Hudson (Marilyn) of Augusta, GA and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.

Ronnie is now at peace resting with God. He is gone but will never be forgotten

A memorial service is scheduled for Saturday, August 10, 2019 at 1:00 in the McDonald Funeral Home chapel in Hohenwald, TN. Reginald Burrell will officiate.

Visitation with the family will begin at 12:00 PM.

“ My dearest uncle is now another angel looking over me. I have so many memories of you, I remember your smell an the heyyy wuz up dawayn dawayn sun glasses you wore. I remember you taking us on road trips in the blue car listening to the smoothies rnb music. Your laugh was the best! You would laugh so hard you would cry. I remember all the family gatherings, you was always there, when you would pull up to aunt wease house, I would run out screaming uncle Ronnie is here, you was so COOL to me. Wuz up wuz up whaaaats up is what you would say with your arms open ready for a hug. I remember visiting you at your house an the smell of inscents an that blue light big speakers an you with your shades on being the coolest man walking. When I had my first born child IALIYAH HUdson, my uncle would put her on his knee an bounce her up an down ALL the time, she would laugh so hard he would try to put her down so his knee could rest an she would cry. Your walk you had with that one hand swinging back an forth was the coolest, i remember my brother saying all the time I'm going to be like unc when I grow up, he's so COOL an calm. I have so many memories of you my sweet uncle, some I will keep to myself an remember all the encouraging words you spoke to me. You always took time for your niece an I LOVE you for that, you was a great man an even a better uncle I'm going to miss you ALWAYS. I love you my one true uncle Ronnie with the coolest walk an talk you will forever be in my heart. ❤️
