“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of Rowena, a second cousin of mine. When I was a child she was an inspiration to me as I spent quite a few days and nights at her house. Forest and Tony were about the same ages as my brother and I. When in town we would stay at the “Creasy” house. All I have is good thoughts and memories of those times. We have a tendency to believe that our friends and relatives will live forever. Not realistic, but very true. With that thought, we have a tendency to put off visiting people believing they’ll be there when we have time to visit. Until, someone passes like this...then reality sets in. She will be sorely missed by all. I will always have those fond memories of her to hold on to. Rowena, I will see you in heaven.

“ *I fell in love with Rowena the moment I met her. Her love for her family and friends ran deep and full. I felt like I knew her all my life though we only had a short time together .
