“ I am so sad we have lost our friend, Roy. He was always enjoying life, laughing and remembering special times with family and friends.
He especially loved music, listening and singing to music, and going to the dances at Centerville where he always felt welcome and would sing a song to his wife, Christine. Roy was and still is, loved by many. He is missed.

“ To my "Flossie & Robert Harrington Family":

I am so sorry to hear that Roy has passed. I am equally sorry that I will not be able to celebrate his life at the visitation and family meal. May he rest in peace and his memories always be a blessing to all.
