“ My precious cousin, Ruth is one of the most Christlike angels I have ever known; always thinking of and caring for others. From my earliest childhood memories Ruth was always an amazing role model for me.

Love and condolences to Jason, Lewis and her many nieces, nephews and cousins. And as she would always say when we were ending our visits “you too”.

“ Ruth was very close to the Rogers, and we loved her. She had wit and humor and was so much fun. I bought my first car from Ruth at age 17....she was quite a salesman in the church parking lot and just like family to us a lifetime. We visited her home every Xmas Eve with a present from mom and dad..and she gifted us with delicious bags of holiday trail mix...the best! She was so kind to everyone and a Christian role model for all time. I visited her several times at the church office before she retired. She was amazing toiling so hard into her 70s and full of goodwill. Ruth was a giver on a high level. She related that she gave tours at WSM-TV long ago...same job I had while in college. Ruth excelled with much expertise amidst many skills and talents. She was special for all time. I will attend her memorial on Sunday to say a last goodbye. Heartbreaking to hear this news today...a positive influence with a legacy for a new generation.*

Ruth was always ready to greet one with a sweet smile and an encouraging word. Neil and I would go to their home to get Neil's haircut after Jimmy closed his barber shop. She would telling us how Jason was doing. Please accept our sincere sympathy.
