

Samuel Freeman Ellis

February 23, 1958 - February 15, 2025

Samuel Freeman Ellis, 66 years of age, passed away on February 15, 2025, in Dickson, Tennessee. He was born in Todd County, Kentucky on February 23, 1958, to the late William Turner and Mary Frances Christian Ellis. In addition to his parents, Sammy was preceded in death by his sister Vivian Gail Ellis.

Sammy is survived by his wife of 47 years, Vickie Engelman Ellis, daughters April Dawn (Chris) Wallace and Brandi Jeanane (Dustin) Mackin, grandchildren Ellis Cole Edwards, Emmaleigh Grace Mackin, Addison Faith Mackin and Brilee Hope Mackin, sister Becky (Ricky) Jeanette, brothers, Jerry Ellis, Bill Ellis, Jr., Randy (Lynn) Ellis, numerous nieces and nephews, along with a host of other family and friends.

Sammy was a loving, kind and generous husband, father, grandfather and friend. He loved people and they loved him. Everywhere he went he made some type of impact on people. No one could begin to compare to the knowledge he carried of just about every sport created. He loved music and he loved to sing. He possessed so many great qualities but in that he was always trying to build someone else and take the attention away from himself.

Sammy will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him.

McDonald Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Ellis family.

“ We will never forget Bro Sammie he was so nice to me and my family. Will always remember him and his kindness. A joy to see him when he last came to the church has been many years ago. He always seemed to be so happy.

“ Uncle Sammy was THE BEST at everything. Any competition/game/round I ever competed with him(sports) or played against him in, I (&/or we--Joshua) lol; never won. NEVER. Just as recent as this past summer Jerry, Josh, & Myself got a chance against THE MAN. And, as always, won and all non chalant won convincingly 🏆 100. An incredible athlete and competitor. Love you
