“ Sara and I met while blogging on a Christian author's site and became friends out of those connections. We loved sharing our perspectives on living a Christian Life that enriches the people around us. Sara had a great sense of humor and I loved talking with her by way of the internet. Later, on Facebook, we explored all areas of life and the events which were shaping our nation. I will miss my friend in so many ways and I feel blessed that I was allowed to be called her friend. I thank Sara's friends that shared with me yesterday and letting me know that she has arrived at her final destination and I know she is enjoying it greatly. God keeps his wonderful promises to all of us.

“ I have worked with Sara for 21 years at the Eskind Biomedical Library and she was always kind and helpful to her colleagues. I am very thankful that she agreed to make my daughter’s wedding cake, her very special red velvet cake, that until this day I can savor it in my mind. May Sara rest in peace and may her family remember happy moments enjoyed together. So sorry that she had so little time to enjoy her retirement.
