“Jonathon, Danielle and Justin, your mom was my 2nd cousin. She was 2 yrs older than me and I saw her often when we were growing up and she lived with my great-grandparents. She was so pretty. Always had the most beautiful smile with those brown eyes that could light up the room. As we grew up, I didn't see her except for family reunions. I remember her chasing after Jonathon on the playground at a reunion. You could see the love in her eyes for him. She said, he looks just like me doesn't he? After the reunions stopped, I saw her at Mama Spann's funeral and she asked me did I know she had twins. I told her yes, that Mama Spann had talked of them and so had uncle Carl. She said that she wish I could see the twins, they were about grown and beautiful. I've seen pictures of you all and Kathy made good looking kids all the way to adults. I pray peace over each one of you and your children.

God Bless each one,

Lisa Hunt Brock
