“ Jean's death hit me hard after a really hard year. I loved Jean. I can't say we were like family, we WERE family. We laughed together and mourned the deaths of our mothers and loved ones together. Our mothers lived next door to each other all my life and until their deaths. I know Jean loved the Lord, her family and friends above all else. I was honored to have been one of those people. I last saw Jean in November and we talked and laughed as always. I had no idea she got sick soon afterward. I know she will be remembered and missed by all who knew her but none more than her family. My love and prayers go out to Janie, Gary, Donnie, MaeLynn, Phillip, Dale and Adam, May God be with you all during this sad and difficult time and may you all find that peace that passes all understanding. ”
