“ Dear Family, What an incredible Labor of Love you all have just completed as you provided the very best care for your Mom right up to the end. All of the staff and care providers here at Hospice Compassus wish to extend our condolences on the passing of your dear Ms. Sherry. May the God who loves the hurting now go to work to heal your hearts. Since Jesus Knows and Jesus Cares, He, being the "man of sorrows" is acquainted with our grief, knows what you feel. May God now bring to your remembrance all the great stories of life and love she leaves you. If you share them we will listen. Tell them for as long as you need to. May the Lord bless you and keep you and may He send His wonderful peace to your hearts. For Hospice Compassus, Eddie Rogers, Chaplain

“ We are so sorry to hear about your loss. We grew up and went to school with Sherry. She was one of the happiest and kindest people that I have ever met. She served in our wedding 29 years ago. I will never forget that smile. The earth lost a wonderful person today, but heaven has gained a great angel. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
