“ I went to school with Shirley and worshiped with her for several years. She was a fine Christian woman. Our sympathy to Darlene and Milissa and their families. I believe she is Safe In The Arms Of Jesus. Oh what comfort that has to be. From Reba McFarlin

So many memories about Shirley. I spent many hours at Raymond & Shirley's home growing up. She use to make the best popcorn balls for Halloween for her trick or treaters. While waiting for the school bus, she would tell David & me to get in with her & Melissa so we didn't get rained on or cold. She always treated me like I was one of her own. She had a beautiful smile. I know she was a happy person because she laughed so much. I know she is in a much better place than we all are. Melissa, Darlene, Margaret and grandchildren, I am so sorry for you all. Just remember that she loved you all very deeply.
