February 6, 1987 - March 27, 2024

A graduate of Columbia Central High School in 2007, Soleil's passion for the written word was evident in her love for writing short stories and poems. Her scrapbooking projects were a tapestry of her own writing and ideas, showcasing her crafty nature. Soleil's creativity also shone through her homemade crafts, crochets, and intricate jewelry that captured her imagination and dedication.

Soleil's faith was a cornerstone of her life. She was an active member of Chalice Church in Columbia, TN, and worshiped alongside her husband at Northview Church of Christ. Her commitment to her faith was demonstrated through numerous mission trips, including an impactful seven-week journey to China.

She loved to read the Bible, and in the last few weeks and days, anyone who visited her, she would ask them to read the Bible to her or would ask to pray with them. In her last days, she cherished Psalms 91.

She was a beacon of love and joy to her husband, Joshua Duncan, with whom she shared a beautiful life since their marriage on June 22, 2013. She is also survived by a sister Lacey (Adam) Himes, Mother Anna Fockler, Step Father Mike Fockler, Father In Law & Mother In Law Tony & Cathy Duncan, Grandmother Barbara Parrish, Nieces & Nephews Lila, Briar & Alyssa Himes. “ Josh, I am so sorry to hear of Soleil's passing. My most vivid memory of Soleil is her extremely strong faith and love for God, and the other is that her hands were always busy making something. Even when we ran into you two in the oncology waiting rooms at Vanderbilt, she was working on a project. It was such a blessing to run into your familiar faces in that unexpected place. You are in my prayers. May God bless you with comfort and peace.
