“ "Timex", that's what I often called Aunt Susie. Do you remember "Timex takes a lickin, and keeps on tickin"?
Down here in Florida, we have 4 of her remaining nieces and nephews from her sister Sina; They are: Mary, Kenneth, David, and Annie. With Herbert, she may now be visiting our gone-on sisters: Evelyn, Ruth, and Myrtle (passed 2 weeks ago), and brother Wallace "Bo".
I'll betcha Aunt Susie can't hardly get a word in edgewise because of Evelyn, our oldest sister. I know youall knew her!
Anyone would thank God above for having such a wonderful aunt. If we ever forget an aunt or uncle, it sure won't be Aunt Susie. We'll all see you soon, Aunt Susie: "Timex" .
Here's deepest love and remembrance to her, and tear-stained sympathy to all of her family.
Love always, from Mary, Ken, David, and Annie, and also our children, who grew to love her exceedingly.

Aunt Susie, Mama (your sister Myrtle) was closer to you than any of her other siblings. Mama loved you so very much. Jean, Janey, Garry, David and Dorris have my heart felt condolences. You were the last to go from our grandparents bouquet of memories. You are now, at rest, with Uncle Herbert and Donnie. Your niece Sheila.
