

Sylvia Jean Stan

August 17, 1946 - May 28, 2026

Mrs. Sylvia Jean Stan, age 79, of Hohenwald, Tennessee, passed away peacefully at her home on May 28, 2026. She was born on August 17, 1946, in Michigan, Sylvia was the daughter of the late Henry Frank Wisniewski and Eugenia Palcyn Wisniewski.

On May 2, 1969, she married the love of her life, Allen Joseph Stan, beginning a devoted marriage that spanned more than fifty-seven years. Sylvia was a dedicated wife, homemaker, and freelance journalist whose warmth and vibrant spirit touched countless lives.

Full of energy and enthusiasm, Sylvia embraced life with a joyful heart. She was musically talented and loved sharing her gift through choir participation. A gracious host, faithful encourager, and loving aunt and sister, she had a remarkable ability to uplift those around her with her smile, kindness, and positive outlook. Her deep Catholic faith was the foundation of her life. She was a woman of prayer, strong in her spirituality, and steadfast in her trust in God.

Sylvia cherished family gatherings and treasured every opportunity to spend time with those she loved. She was known for her empathy, compassion, and unwavering support of family and friends. She also had a special love for animals and found great joy in caring for them.

She leaves behind her beloved husband, Allen Joseph Stan; sisters, Judith (Michael) Corbit and Debby (Rocky) Frisch; nephews and niece, Jerry (Magan) Rodriguez, Christopher (Anna) Corbit, Brett (Elizabeth) Corbit, and Anastacia (Steven) Corbit-Clarkson; along with many extended family members and dear friends who will miss her greatly.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Lewis County Food Bank.

A graveside service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 3rd at Swiss Cemetery.

McDonald Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Stan family.
