“ I remember when him and your mom had met. One day he was working at the old garage in Wrigley at the old comacery. I will never forget it he was the one that would pump your gas well it was my mom Patsy, Iris and me. Iris jumped into the back seat got down into the floor and hid from him, she was already in love with him even though I don't think they was even dating yet but she was hiding and I was 6 or 7 it scared me but now I can laugh about it.and the night our house in Wrigley burned down Teddy and iris was gone to see that movie with John Travolta in it Saturday night fever. Then we moved to Lyle's and it wasn't long that him and Iris got married. I will always have good memories of Teddy no bad ones he love my aunt so very much I could go on for days . He will never be forgotten. He is with his one true love. They are watching over you Shaun and Matthew and the grandbabies he loves y'all very much he may not have shown it all the time but he did I know he did.
