

Thomas Allan "Budgie" Harvill

September 26, 1960 - October 31, 2024

Thomas Allan "Budgie" Harvill, age 64 of Centerville, Tennessee, passed away on October 31, 2024. He was a gifted handyman with a heart full of kindness. Thomas was born in Hickman County, Tennessee, to the late Thomas and Marie Harvill on September 26, 1960.

Thomas, known to most as "Budgie", graduated from Hickman County High School in 1978, and went to work at the family-owned gas station, Harvill Exxon, in his hometown of Centerville, Tennessee. He was a man who could fix anything, a trait he honed from a young age. Budgie was a free spirit, who never met a stranger. His heart was never far from the thrill of the open road. He had a love for Harleys and the dirt track.

In addition to his parents, Budgie is preceded in death by his sister, Janet Hutchison.

Budgie leaves behind a legacy of loyalty, laughter and unforgettable memories. He will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him.

Burial of cremains will take place at a later time.

McDonald Funeral Home in Centerville is honored to be serving the Harvill Family during this difficult time.

“ What a beautiful tribute to the life of "Budgie". Budgie was always so courteous and friendly when he came in the Town Crier Gift Shop. If we had a display we were no longer using, he could usually find a use for it - very resourceful and could fit it into something he needed, or knew someone who could use it. He had a creative and artistic eye, and loved looking at "how things were made." He was a kind soul and would help anyone who needed it. That is a good legacy to be remembered by. He will be missed.
