

Thomas Dale Johnston

February 26, 1953 - October 5, 2019

Thomas Dale Johnston was born on February 26, 1953, in the Beaverdam Community of Hickman County, Tennessee. He passed away on October 5, 2019, in Nashville. He was 66 years old.

He was the son of the late Will T. Johnston and Lucille Halbrooks Johnston.

He was also preceded in death by several brothers and sisters, and his granddaughter Faith.

He is survived by his two daughters Tara Johnson of Murfreesboro and Joy Anglin of Centerville. Sister Maxine Love of Centerville. Brothers Jerry Johnston of Centerville and Jackie Johnston of Centerville. Ex-wife Linda Kathleen Johnston. His 10 grandchildren: James Clark, Jr., Jamie Clark, Barbara Anglin, Morgan Anglin, Audrey Anglin, Jerry Anglin, Jr., Trevor Johnson, Trent Johnson, Brianna Johnson, and Jarrod Johnson. 5 Great-Grandchildren. Along with many other relatives, friends, and loved ones.

Mr. Johnston worked as a truck driver, and for several years at Levi's factory. He was a hard worker. He brought himself up from very little and made a good living for himself and his family.

He was also a country boy to his core. He enjoyed all things outdoors. He hunted deer, turkey, raccoons, and squirrels just to name a few of the types of game that he chased. He also loved to fish. He spent a lot of time getting up before dawn and heading out to Perryville to wet his line looking for Catfish. He was at peace when he was outside.

Mr. Johnston loved to gather with family and friends. He loved to spend time with them. If there was a Budweiser in his hand, a good time to be had, and a crew to share it with he was happy.

He will be laid to rest in Wade Peeler Cemetery alongside many of his kin. His family hopes that he will be at peace being there in the country setting that he loved so much.
