“ He was a family oriented, friendly, well loved, well respected, unique, athletic, and respectful young man who made impressions on the hearts of everyone he met. He made the Today show when he watched a deer score a goal during his youth soccer game. At soccer practice one night, all the boys were talking and the coach told them that the the boys would have to hold the girls' hands for the rest of practice if they didn't stop. Tristan cut his eyes over and then smiled really big. Such a big but humble personality. He will be missed.

“ I did not know this young man or his family. His obituary was shared by a friend and I believe my grandson knew him but I am heart broken for his family. My grandson is born the same month in the same year exactly a week after this young man and it just devastates me. I also was in a car wreck on this day in 2022. What a handsome young man and I love his name. I will pray for his family and friends and they will be in my thoughts and prayers. May he rest in the precious arms of Jesus until they see him again. I am so glad that the McDonald funeral home is going to be there for the family. I knew Mrs. McDonald and my wedding was at her home in Centerville. What a precious lady. I will never forget her and all that she did for me on my special day and I will never forget this young man. My heart is in my throat and I pray God helps them to find comfort in the Lord.
