He was the son of Joseph Waychoff and Heather Marie Hofbauer.

He is preceded in death by his mother and his grandmother JoAnn Luther. Also by his dog Pepper.

He is survived by his father Joseph Waychoff. His sisters Ashley Marie Waychoff, Brianna Jo Waychoff (Clayton), and Courtney Ray Waychoff. His grandmother Sherry Waychoff. Tristan was a brave creative, free-spirited, young man. He took pride in all that he did, in 2017 he won his 1st gold medal in the Special Olympics in bowling. His spirit animal was the wolf.

He loved the beach and especially the outdoors, shooting anything he can get his hands on, bows, guns, airsoft but most of all he was a family man, loved being around and making memories with family. Reminiscing about the "good old times," while embracing the present moments with his young nieces and nephews.

Fate whispers to the wolf, "you cannot withstand the storm" and the wolf whispered back, "I am the storm."

"There are nights when the wolves are silent and only the moon howls."

“ *I remember how excited Tristan's parents were to finally have a boy! Tristan was such a sweet child! I lost contact for awhile but after reconnecting with this wonderful family last week, I was caught up on what a wonderful young man Tristan grew into! His love for the outdoors was something both parents and sisters all have or at least had! I know times have been rough, but I also know Tristan was loved and cherished by all the lives he touched..Rest in peace little man and watch over your family! May the family all feel the comforting arms of God In this time of grief. My deepest condolences. You all already know I love you and I'm here.
