

Van Rasbury

July 6, 1928 - October 14, 2011

Mr. Rasbury was born in Waynesboro to the late Van Campbell and Willie Florence Brown Rasbury. He was a retired supervisor from DuPont and a World War II Army Veteran. Survivors include his wife, JoAnn Stowe Rasbury of Waynesboro; daughter, Susan Tucker of Burns; sisters, Monetta Bullion of Madison, Rosetta Shane of Waynesboro, Nadine Turnbow (Clifford) and Florine Gossett both of Hohenwald and Judy Woodruff of Antioch. He was also preceded in death by a baby brother.

Tribute Wall

MO

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss and Mr. Van will be sadly missed seeing him ride up and down Tospay checking things out making sure nothing is wrong he was a very nice friendly man and will sadly be missed if there's anything Marty or I can do let us know. Thanks Marty And Shebra

---

Marty and Shebra Frazier Oct - October 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AO

“ Susan, you and your mother are in my thoughts through this most difficult time, I know the type of pain of your heart, let it hurt and then it will heal, many prayers to you all, April

---

April Fussell Miller Oct - October 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM

SO

“ I am truly saddened by this news. I have very fond memories of my mother's cousin.

---

Stephen Graves Oct - October 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM

CO

“ Susan, I am so sorry about your dad. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

---

Cindy Batey Seals Oct - October 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM