“ She was more than an aunt to me - we had a bond. I understood her and she understood me for we are a lot alike. She told me things about my Dad that were too hard for my Mom to talk about. She told me about walking to church with her Dad and brother (my Dad) in the winter. It was cold and she fell in the creek. She loved her church and she cared about people. This world was a better place because of her and she will be sorely missed. I love you Aunt Verneda.
