“ This man was a rock to the family. I am a former daughter in law. He loved his bacon, cornbread and white beans. He acted gruff and rough at times but had a good heart. He loaned me his pick up truck to use for a year. That was a a really big deal, cause it's not like he was financially well off. Back in the seventies, he punched me in the nose by accident. I never let him forget it either. Ha Ha And, he gave me a huge box one Christmas. I was so excited. Turned out, it was firewood. He laughed and said "you were complaining so much about being out all the time". God love him and Martha both. Happy they are together now.
