“ I have too many memories and they are all great ones. Vincent was one of the nicest men a person could ever have the privilege of knowing. He loved his daughters more than life itself and the grandchildren as well. We always had this thing that I was his Yankee Aunt. He thought he was so funny and enjoyed teasing me about living in the North. Our last words to each other were weather related because of all the snow we got from Christmas Eve to the end of Christmas Day. (36-1/2 inches). He mentioned to me on Facebook that there was a lot of snow on our roof. I told him to come on up and take care of it for me. His reply was, "that is why you have grandkids" lol. We did not have enough time on this earth together and I love you dearly. There are many memories, but not enough space to list them all. Rest in Peace dear nephew. Now you will be with your mama once again.
