“ I remember spending Christmas with Ms. Shanes when she lived in Nashville TN. She is a sweet lady who loves her family and is a good Christian woman. Heaven gained another precious angel. Although she isn't my real grandmother she was always like a grandmother to me. She never turned anyone away from her table. This precious lady buried a daughter and a son something no parent should have to do. She never questioned God nor did she hold anger towards anyone. RIP Granny Shanes.
