“ I remember Nanny playing board games with me and us decorating the Christmas tree at Christmas time, dying Easter eggs and so much more. Nanny was an inspiration, despite her ailments she always remained faithful to the Lord and was positive.

“ I remember dying Easter eggs with you and doing activities and you taught me how to play cards, watching Andy Griffith or playing the hand held jeopardy game with you and pawpaw, and board games. Nannie was always writing encouraging words to church members and was always positive despite her ailments. I love you nanny and Miss you dearly.

“ My name is Marc Beaver. My mother, Addie Ruth Ford, was close friends with Vivian when they were young and lived in The Grove, Miami. I have a letter from Vivian that was written in Jan. 1995. We exchanged several letters over that year, and I just came upon the letter. I was hoping to make contact with her. However, I'd like to make contact with any member of her family that might call. I live in Marietta, Ga, and my number is 678-467-7244, or marcusdbeaver@gmail.com. I hope to hear soon from someone. God bless you and I'm so sorry to hear about the death of Vivian. She and my mom will be celebrating together, I'm sure.
