

W C "Pete" Warf

March 1, 1944 - February 2, 2025

W. C. "Pete" Warf was born in Centerville, Tennessee to the late Benton and Margaret George Warf on March 1, 1944 and entered eternal rest in Dickson, Tennessee on February 2, 2025 at the age of 80 years.

In addition to his parents Pete is preceded in death by his brothers Alfred, Burford and Charlie. He is survived by his wife Beverly Warf, children Tina (Keith) Howell, Sam (Diane) Warf, Jeanea Warf, Selina Young, Jared Warf, several grandchildren and great grandchildren along with a host of other family and friends.

Pete was blessed with the gift and talent of working with his hands. He did beautiful upholstery work some of which was for Elvis Presley and is still on display in Memphis, Tennessee at Graceland. He was a carpenter that built houses and loved all types of woodworking. He enjoyed watching Gunsmoke on television.

The family is honoring Pete's wishes for cremation. A celebration of life will be scheduled at a later date.

McDonald Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Warf family.
