“ The angels in heaven are rejoicing with the arrival of Wanda. Paul and her are having a grand reunion. We, mere mortals, are left with a big hole in our hearts. Wanda was one of the nicest persons we've ever met. She and I went "gleaning" in the country side one day. That was her word for picking up junk. Ha! Dear family please accept this note as our expression of sympathy for we cannot be there in person to hug you or share in the service. May God give you comfort in this time.

“ Pauletta, my love and prayers are with you at this time. I have lost both my parents and it's hard but God has some really special angels up in heaven. All my love to you.
