“ Jean, I am sorry to hear of Wayne's passing. I hope this isn't a duplicate memory, as I tried earlier this morning and never saw it posted. I knew Wayne since Lyle school. I have never heard one unkind word about Wayne. He was a great, honest and kind mechanic. Ray always took our vehicle to Mr Horace and then to Wayne. I have fond memories of you, Martha, Kathleen and I when we were little girls playing under the bridge near your house. I can tell you my friend that life will never be the same. I still miss Ray so much and he has been gone since October 10. Only God knows our pain. Love and prayers to you and your family.

Jean, I just saw online about Wayne's passing. I knew him from elementary school in Lyle and ever since then. I have never heard one unkind word about him. He was a great mechanic and always honest. I can tell you my friend that life will never be the same. Only God knows how I miss Ray. I remember you and I being friends when we were little girls. May God continue to bless you and your family. ❤️🌹
