“ I did not know Bill Rogers, but have known Dolene Willis Rogers for most of our lives. She graduated HS with my older sister, but I am nearer her age!! I love Dolene and her entire family, so know that Bill must have been a good man, else Dolene would never have married him. I have heard many good things (and nothing bad) about Bill. I lost my older brother last week and hearing people say good things about him was very uplifting. I hope that this will be that way for Dolene & the rest of Bill's family. I have got all of you in my prayers, through this difficult time. In christian Love, Anne Archer

“ So many miles together, we rode our motorcycles to Nova Scotia together, down the Saint Lawrence seaway, North Carolina countless times, Wisconsin and so many other places. I had to tuck him in at a hotel in Reveiere De loupe on the St. Lawrence when he had eaten bad Macaroni salad in Moncton, rolled into a gas station with him out of gas in Cincinatti, went through tornado's in Louisville, and in all our trips, he never could figure out how I got out of my rain gear coming back from Niagra Falls while going down the highway, the jacket was easy, the pants I cut off! I'll miss stopping in for a coffee or meeting at Generals for a bite to eat with Bill. I'll miss riding deals gap with Bill, man could he push it. (Dolene didn't like that part) hanging out at rallies together and can still hear him saying at meetings "Now Ed" everytime I'd mess up! You will be greatly missed... Your friend, Ed
