

William Hollis Rosson

September 3, 1964 - December 16, 2023

In loving memory of William Hollis Rosson, a remarkable soul whose life was woven with threads of compassion, joy and dedication. At 59 years old, he departed this world, leaving behind a treasure of unforgettable moments.

William was born to the late Clifford “Skip” Hollis Rosson and Catherine Louise Davis Rosson, in Lewis County, Tennessee on September 3, 1964. In addition to his parents William is preceded in death by his grandparents; William Jethro Rosson, Maggie Lou McNabb Rosson, Howard “Bully” Davis and Mary Lou Rosson Davis.

William sought the joy of NASCAR and was an avid Jimmy Johnson fan. Whether he was cheering on #48, or sharing tales of races past, his enthusiasm was infectious. Williams' other passion for life was the great outdoors he so dearly loved. A seasoned outdoorsman, William found peace in fishing and loved the thrill of a good turkey hunt.

Family was the cornerstone of his being. His heart was rooted in the ballfield where he found joy in watching or coaching his kids. His presence at his son's games and daughter's cheerleading events was a testament to his commitment to their passions.

For 33 years, William served his county, in the highway department working as a heavy machine operator, where he later retired from. His dedication and hard work were unwavering, earning the respect of all who worked alongside him. His commitment extended to his family pets, Dexter, Cheetah and Willow whom he loved dearly. William was a long time member of the Pinegrove Baptist Church and was baptized there when he was a boy.

For sixteen beautiful years, he shared an unbreakable bond with his beloved spouse, Angie Reeves Rosson. In addition to his wife, those left to cherish Williams memory are his daughter, Zora Rosson and son, Themen Rosson, of Duck River, Tennessee; stepdaughter Marie (Michael) Stewart of McEwen, Tennessee; stepson Dwayne Blocker of McEwen, Tennessee; siblings, Debbie Smith of Duck River, Tennessee, Cathey Daniels of Centerville, Tennessee, Gail Givens of Centerville, Tennessee and Tommy Rosson of Duck River, Tennessee; nieces, Sherry Smith of Duck River, Tennessee and Anna Tidwell of Springhill, Tennessee; great-nieces, Brianna Jenkins of Duck River, Tennessee, Brooke Boaz of Duck River, Tennessee; great nephews, Christopher "June Bug" Leming of Spring Hill, Tennessee and Ryan "Rhino" Leming of Spring Hill, Tennessee, two great-great nieces, one great-great nephew and six step-grandchildren.

His kindness, laughter and love will echo through the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

“ William Hollis, Ray, and I had an epic adventure on Duck River one night! By the time I got off work after 7 pm, William and Ray were already deep in the suds. We had trot lines out, and after we all had been enjoying adult beverages for quite some time and were feeling full of energy in the wee hours of the morning, we decided it would be a great idea to run the lines. We set out with Ray driving the boat and William and I checking and re-baiting the lines. Once we were done, we thought we were heading back UP RIVER, toward the cabin. I looked up and exclaimed that we were heading DOWN RIVER!!!! Ray and William both argued that we were going UP RIVER! After some discussion, we came to the conclusion that we were, indeed, headed DOWN RIVER, away from the cabin. Never take river directions from fellas that work for the county highway department!!!! LOL We have laughed about this for years!!!!!! Good times.

“ Made many a great memories turkey hunting with William over the years. Always enjoyed hearing his tales from the days hunt while sitting around the camp waiting to enjoy a meal of fried potatoes and onions and some sort of wild game that my dad would cook for us all. Great man, loving father and husband that was taken from this world way to soon. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ *I could not have asked for a better neighbor
We kept an eye on each other's property. He treated my daughter as if she was his own. If I ever needed help with anything he was there. He will be dearly missed.*
