“ My fondest memory of my uncle was how big of a joker he was. I used to call him my "turkeyneck" and he'd always say "turkeyneck who you calling turkeyneck" and we'd laugh. I remember one time he taught me how to take apart a shotgun shell and he let me keep the shell as a memory to this day I still have it and I always will. I miss you uncle William and I hope you know how loved you were.
