“ To Willie Howard's siblings: I am sad to learn of your brother's death. Although I never met any of you, I knew your mother, Dottie Mae; whom we all called "Tiny" quite well. She Loved my mother dearly and we also loved her. My mother married Tiny's Uncle when she was only a small child & they lived in the same house for a short tiem. She came to visit my mother a lot after my dad died. I last saw her in the nursing home when our mutual aunt, Lula Whitehead Aldridge died and my sister & I visited her after going to the funeral home for Aunt 'Ludie's' visitation. I am sad that I never got to meet any of you; but have spoken to one of the sistees (I think Marie) anyway, I am sending condolences to you all and will have you in my prayers during this difficult time. I know how hard it is to lose a sibling. If any of you would like, please contact me by e-mail. Wish I could be with you at this time, but circumstances do not allow that. with love, Anne
