“ I remember the day I first officially met Chena. She was good friends with one of my friends. We all had Cosmetology together in 2014. Cat, Chena, Elizabeth, and I all sat in the back corner. Me and Chena got paired up to do nails on each other, and she just started talking her life away. It was all about her family. It's like she has never met a stranger before, just so happy and open with anyone. Because of that day, and because of that class, I gained a beautiful best friend. I'll never forget our pizza dates or Mexican food dates, I remember she made me drive her to McDonald's, Taco Bell and Dairy Queen all in just one day just so she could have something from each place! Lol. She was such a beautiful soul. I miss you so much, booski. Forever in our hearts.

“ I was Chena's cosmetology instructor in high school. She was always so respectful and eager to learn. She has a shy side but whenever she got to create in the salon, her personality really blossomed. She was such a beautiful soul that I will never forget. Thoughts and prayers for all who loved her. Rest in peace, beautiful girl.

“ I will always love you my baby . I will never forget how you would listen to me play guitar and sing. All the holidays we spent together and the times we laughed and told jokes .How you always made me feel loved and respected. I will miss you my darling fly high with those Angel wings for one day we shall meet again in a Glorious place. I will always love you and miss you.
Love,
Aunt Shonda and Uncle Eddie Ables.
