“ May her pure soul rest in peace. We are saddened by her passing... but with Christ, that is much better. She fought the good fight, completed the quest, and obtained the crown of righteousness, so congratulations to her in the kingdom... I offer my condolences to myself because she is my mother as well, and to my blessed family headed by Father Dasinger, Father Edwin, and mother Jennifer.. She was a loving mother and a servant of the Lord throughout her life, and she bore the fruits of her service. May her pure soul rest in peace. We are proud of her and her fragrant memory.

As her little sister I greatly admired Yvonne, especially from her teen years. E wanted to do what she did, study what she studied and love the things she did. We were married four weeks apart and our lives took somewhat different paths but also similar, with mission experience and location changes, ending up in Tennessee.
